Four Corners Air Quality Task Force to Meet on May 9 in Farmington

WHAT: The regular quarterly meeting of the Four Corners Air Quality Task Force

WHEN: Tuesday, May 9, 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

WHERE: Courtyard (Marriott) Farmington
560 Scott Avenue
Farmington, New Mexico 87401

WHY: The Four Corners Air Quality Task Force was formed to discuss and analyze the growing air quality challenges facing the region. The affected states, tribes, federal land managers and area residents have come together with a goal of evaluating options for addressing a wide range of air quality issues. An initial public meeting was held in Farmington, New Mexico in November 2005. The upcoming meeting in Farmington is one of a planned series of regular quarterly meetings during which workgroups will examine issues related to oil and gas development; power plants; other air pollution emission sources; cumulative effects; and air quality monitoring.
